CASE NUMBER: 04-40021-004-JLF

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment, and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall pay the fine in installments of $20.00 per month or 10% of his net monthly income, whichever is greater.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorneys' Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

The defendant shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer for treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages and illegal substances. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/or testing based on a co-pay sliding fee scale approved by the U.S. Probation Office. Co-Pay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, to specifically address issues of domestic violence and anger management. The defendant shall participate in treatment until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officers at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
